

Volunteer Code of Conduct and Attire

20th annual El Centro Math, Science and Technology Day
Wednesday, October 13th, 2010

Code of Conduct

As a volunteer of El Centro's annual Math, Science, Tech Day you are not only representing yourself, your program of study, and your university but the general population of STEM fields as a whole. As such, the committee asks kindly that you are respectful, responsible, and mindful of others.

Attire

There are no uniforms required for MST Day. The committee asks that volunteers dress casually but nicely:

Encouraged	Discouraged
CSU themed shirts	Shirts with other logos or designs
Plain Tshirts, button down or collared shirts	Shirts with alcohol or other inappropriate references
Nice jeans	Jeans with holes, rips, or tears
Nice shorts, appropriate length	Shorts with holes, rips, tears or shorts that are shorter than 6" above the knee
Comfortable shoes	Shoes that are hard to wear or walk in for any length of time

Please direct questions/concerns to Nisse Lee:
nisse.lee@colostate.edu or (970) 491-3478